Construction Updates

Greetings from sunny San Carlos! So much construction progress has been made since our last newsletter! Building A is complete and is absolutely beautiful. The grounds are picturesque with bougainvillea, palm trees, colorful lantana and other native landscaping all around.

The spa is in place and all of the grounds look fantastic. As you can see in the photo, Building C is progressing as well. Exterior walls are up and the stairs are in place. We are ready for visitors to indulge in the views from the fifth floor! Your slice of paradise awaits you on the Sea of Cortez. Come see us soon!

A Shining Gem of Villas Sirenas

Ana Martinez

Villas Sirenas - Homeowner Liaison & On-Site Project Coordinator

Family: Mother Hortencia Villalobos, brother Leo (39), brother Hugo (16)

Where are you from? I am from Guaymas, Mexico.

How long have you worked with Villas Sirenas? For three months.

What is your favorite part of your job? My favorite part is meeting new people. Also, I like meeting people from other countries besides Mexico and the US who have come to look at the condos.

What do you think about Villas Sirenas? I think Villas Sirenas is the best project in San Carlos. It is a great project in one of the best locations.

How did you learn English? I went to school in Los Angeles where I graduated from high school and attended college.

What is your dream vacation? My dream vacation would be going to France and Italy to learn and experience the history, art, and museums.
